COLLABORATION AGREEMENT

This Collaboration Agreement (“agreement”) is effective as of [date] between National University (“NATIONAL”) and Far East University (“FEU”). Both parties are interested in establishing a relationship that will promote educational opportunities for their students and faculty.

RECITALS

- A. NATIONAL is an independent, non-profit institution of higher education located in the USA. It is accredited by the Commission for Senior Colleges and Universities of the Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC) and offers undergraduate and graduate degrees and certificate programs in a variety of fields.
- B. FEU is a leading education provider in Taiwan with a focus on higher education.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

With this collaboration agreement, FEU and NATIONAL agree to the following:

1. Both institutions will provide their students with opportunities in international education. These opportunities may include, but not limited to, study abroad programs, field trips, and distance learning. To promote collaborative learning between both institutions, each institution will share information of such opportunities to its students.
2. NATIONAL agrees to accept and enroll qualified FEU students as full-time students for the duration of their study abroad period. Students from FEU who wish to enroll at NATIONAL will be responsible for the preparation of all documents required for admission to NATIONAL including an official transcript from all other institutions attended.
3. FEU, in consultation with and support of NATIONAL’s representative office in FEU, shall help applicants prepare for their study at NATIONAL by reviewing the academic programs and transfer policies of both institutions and ensuring that FEU students are fully apprised of the requirements.
4. NATIONAL will provide academic transcripts to FEU students upon request and proper fee payment based on the University policy. Transcripts can be sent directly to FEU.
5. FEU and NATIONAL agree to discuss the possibility of future faculty and staff collaborations.

6. Additions and modifications of this agreement may be executed through a written addendum signed by the representatives of FEU and NATIONAL.
 7. Either institution shall be allowed to promote that the other institution is its partner. This permission is limited to the use of the names and/or logos in advertisements and published materials that are primary to the originating organization. Each party reserves the right to audit any and all materials at any time. Upon a written request for examples of materials, either party must deliver examples of all requested materials within 30 days. If the usage of the logo/name is unacceptable to the requesting party, upon receipt of a written request from the partner, the organization must immediately stop publishing that usage of the logo and/or name, and make best efforts to immediately take any occurrence of the requested usage of such logo and/or name out of circulation.

Publication with exclusive information pertaining a partner, or portrayed as the partner's material, requires a written approval from the other partner.

8. Both institutions agree to maintain discretion concerning the information exchanged within the framework of this collaboration agreement. Furthermore, this agreement does not constitute any financial commitment by either institution.
9. The agreement shall be valid for one (1) year after both parties have signed this document. If one of the parties chooses to change or discontinue the agreement, it must give the other party a written notice of intention ninety (90) days prior to the expiration of these terms. Termination of the agreement is subject to finalization of any pre-existing study abroad activity. If neither party chooses to change or discontinue the agreement at the end of a contract year, the agreement shall automatically renew under the same terms and conditions for an additional year. This will continue until either party chooses to change or discontinue the agreement.

When the agreement requires that a party gives notice to the other party, notice will be effective when: (a) personally delivered to the recipient. Notice is effective upon delivery; (b) mailed first class to the last address of the recipient known to the party giving notice, (c) mailed through an express mail service such as FedEx or UPS or a comparable carrier. Notice is effective on delivery, if delivery is confirmed by the delivery service; or (d) sent by facsimile. Notice is
