Eligibility

Definition of International Students

According to Article 2 of Nationality Law, an applicant should be considered as an international student if, at the time of application, he/she is a foreign national, has never held a Republic of China (ROC) passport, and does not possess overseas Chinese student status.

Those who have foreign nationality and have resided overseas (excluding Mainland China, Hong Kong, and Macau) continuously for no less than 6 years, and whose stays in Taiwan per calendar year do not exceed a total of 120 days, must fulfill one of the following Requirements:

- 1.Be in possession of Taiwanese nationality at the time of application, but have never held household registration in Taiwan since birth.
- 2.Be in possession of Taiwanese nationality prior to application but cease to possess the nationality for at least 8 years since the date on which a revocation was issued from the Ministry of the Interior.

3. In either of the cases as described in the preceding two paragraphs, those who have studied in Taiwan under the status of an overseas Chinese student and those who have been accepted for admission placement during the same year of the application by University Entrance Committee for Overseas Chinese Students should be excluded.
4. Those who once had Taiwanese nationality and applied to renounce Taiwanese nationality for at least 8 years since the date, on which a revocation was issued from the Ministry of the Interior, up to the starting date of semester.
5. Those who have foreign nationality, concurrently holding a permanent residence status in Hong Kong or Macau, but have never held household registration in Taiwan since birth at the time of application, have resided in Hong Kong, Macau, or overseas (excluding Mainland China) continuously for no less than 6 years, and whose stays in Taiwan per calendar year do not exceed a total of 120 days.
6. Those who were former citizens of Mainland China and currently have foreign nationality, but have never held household registration in Taiwan since birth at the time of application, have resided overseas (excluding Mainland China, Hong Kong, and Macau) continuously for no less than 6 years, and whose stays in Taiwan per calendar year do not exceed a total of 120 days.
7. Those who have been selected by a foreign government, organization, school or educational/cultural group according to the Education Cooperation Framework Agreement, have not held the household registration since birth and have received the approval from the designated authorized government educational institutions.
8. An applicant who formerly held ROC citizenship must attach a photocopy of the Forfeited Nationality Permit Certificate or other official certificate (if applicable) issued by the Ministry of the Interior.
9. For other related rules about the qualification, please read “Far East University Regulations Regarding Students Undertaking Studies in Taiwan”.

Anyone who meets the qualifications for sports performance and academic qualifications can apply

1. The following application qualifications for excellence athlete (meet one of them):

 - (2) The student has completed the semester above the last year of the required period of study and has suspended or dropped out of school for more than one year for any reason.
 - (3) After completing the prescribed number of years, he failed to graduate for some reason.
The above-mentioned calculation of the number of years of suspension, withdrawal or re-study shall be calculated from the last completion date stated in the previous academic transcript attached to the certificate of study or the certificate of suspension to the registration deadline of the current year.
3. The recognition of equivalent academic qualifications shall be carried out in accordance with the Ministry of Education's "Standards for Recognition of Equivalent Educational Level as Qualified for Entering University".

※Anyone who falls under any of the following circumstances may not apply to return to the country to study in accordance with the provisions of this brochure. Those who violate the regulations will have their admission qualifications revoked. Those who have already enrolled shall be ordered to withdraw from school and their student status will be revoked.

- (1) Those who have applied for the loss of the nationality of the Republic of China and have approved it and have not yet obtained the nationality of another country.
- (2) Those holding forged or fraudulently used or altered certification documents or passports.

Language Proficiency Certificate

In principle, the teaching language of all departments in this university is Chinese/English combination, and the language proficiency threshold requirement is A2 level or above in the Chinese Language Proficiency Test.

Students who wish to apply for a program taught in English should submit a certificate of English proficiency test that reaches CEFR B1 (inclusive) level or above.

Proof of financial sponsors

1. The general international financial requirement is US$5,000 (should meet the basic standards announced by the local embassy).
2. Students have proof of full scholarships and bursaries provided by the government, colleges and universities or private organizations should submit to the university and foreign affair units for review.
3. Proof of financial resources cannot be issued by an agency, company or individual.
4. Before students have the final official proof of financial resources, they may be required to provide photo proof of family members in the same household or a deposit book that is sufficient to prove kinship (or a deposit certificate issued by a local bank).

Selection method

The applicants who pass the preliminary review will submit their written materials to the relevant application department for review and scoring. Those who pass will be eligible for admission.

For students who have been admitted to various departments (institutes) after examination and whose Chinese language skills still need to be strengthened, each department (institute) is required to participate in the school's Chinese language training courses.
